SPIRITS

BAIJIU

Moutai earns its place on an aged list through time and tradition rather than oak. Crafted over a year-long fermentation and distillation cycle, then rested for years. This long, layered aging tradition yields remarkably deep earthy, savory, and umami-rich flavours balanced with subtle fruit and spice. It rivals the complexity found in any whisky, rum, or brandy despite being a 'white' spirit.

ASIA

Kweichow Moutai
'Flying Fairy' 53%

Defines the most revered category of baijiu, Jiangxiang or 'sauce aroma', the grains are steamed nine times, fermented eight, & distilled seven, then aged for five years.
